The Information and Fire Alarms

The image shows a modern bridge structure with a vibrant, artistic design. The bridge's underside is covered in large, colorful panels of perforated metal. The panels are primarily in shades of blue and green, with intricate patterns of leaves and abstract shapes. The bridge is supported by concrete pillars, some of which also feature decorative patterns. In the background, there are trees and a clear blue sky. A yellow pedestrian crossing sign is visible in the lower-left corner.
